

UTTAM SCHOOL FOR GIRLS
English – Grade IV
Block 12

Q1. Underline the correct possessive pronouns in the following sentences:

1. Is this (your, yours) coat?
2. You can't have (my, mine) cookie.
3. It is (our, ours) turn.
4. Look at (her, hers) funny hat.
5. That ring has lost (its, it's) shine.
6. This car is (my, mine).
7. Dogs love to play so it is a favourite activity of (their, theirs).
8. Are you sure this is (your, yours)?
9. Do you know (whose, who) book this is?
10. (Ones, One's) opinion is welcome here.

Q2. Rewrite the sentence and replace the noun that is underlined with a possessive pronoun.

1. Look at the toy's hat.

---

2. Let's go to Paul's house.

---

3. That game is my family's.

---

4. Is that Susan and Ted's house?

---

5. I want to see Mary's dress.

---

Q3. Rewrite each sentence to include a singular possessive noun.

1. She dropped the toy of the baby.

---

2. He painted the house of my dog.

---

3. I wore the cap of my friend.

---

4. The class of Mr. Nath is in the hall.

---

5. The singing of mom woke me up.

---

6. I washed the windows of the car.

---

UTTAM SCHOOL FOR GIRLS
English – Grade IV
Block 13

Q1. What sensory detail can you use to describe your cookie? Can you think of any phrases or similes that would make your description clearer.

See	Smell	Taste	Hear	Feel

UTTAM SCHOOL FOR GIRLS
English – Grade IV
Block 14

Q1. Read the following and answer the questions below.

A. William knew that he shouldn't have eaten the last cookie out of the cookie jar. He knew that his father loved to eat chocolate chip cookies after work, but William ate the last one anyway. Now as he waited for his father to come home, guilt poked and chewed at William. As delicious as the cookie was, William now wished that he had never opened that cookie jar.

What is being personified?

---

Which human trait or quality is given?

---

B. As Alice searched for her missing pencil, she said sarcastically, "Well, I guess it just walked off of my desk." She looked at her classmates accusingly.

What is being personified?

---

Which human trait or quality is given?

---

C. As we walked through the scorching desert, the sun beat down on us.

What is being personified?

---

Which human trait or quality is given?

---

Q3. What is the theme of the story given below?

Alan had very few responsibilities, but one of them was to clean his room. It did not take long, but Alan still didn't like doing it. One day Alan thought of a way to save some time. Rather than putting everything neatly back in its place, he decided to just throw all the stuff on the floor into his closet. His mom would think that he had cleaned his room, and it would only take a fraction of the time. Alan was pleased with himself for thinking of this brilliant idea. He figured that this would save a lot of time and energy. The next time his room got messy, he piled everything up in the closet and the pile grew. It grew and grew. Then Alan's friend Steve called. "Alan, everyone is playing baseball at the park. Do you want to play too?" Alan loved baseball. "That sounds great, Steve. I'll be right there." Alan went to grab his baseball mitt when he realized that it wasn't in its usual place. Alan thought to himself, I guess it's in the closet. When he opened up the closet door, he was faced with a huge, un navigable mess, some of which poured out as he opened the door. Alan began digging through the pile in a frantic attempt to find his mitt. He dug and dug, and as he dug his room got messier and messier. Soon his room was the messiest that it had ever been, and he still hadn't found his mitt. Alan sighed in despair. By the time he found his mitt, the boys had long concluded their game and Alan had hours of cleaning ahead of him before he'd be allowed to leave.

The theme of the story is:

---

---

---

UTTAM SCHOOL FOR GIRLS
English – Grade IV
Block 18

Q1. Read each statement and mention whether it is a fact or opinion.

1. George Washington was the first President of the United States under the Constitution.

_____

2. Prison is one of the worst places on the planet.

_____

3. Oranges contain both calcium and vitamin C.

_____

4. The more money someone has the more successful they are.

_____

5. Cell phones emit radiation that may or may not cause brain cancer.

_____

6. Popular music today is not as good as it was in the past.

_____

Q2. Look at the picture. Write an opinion supported by facts to persuade your parents to let you have it.

Opinion:

_____
_____

Facts:

_____
_____
_____

---

---

---

UTTAM SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

English – Grade IV

Q1. Pretend you are a tiger. Write a paragraph on the decreasing space or habitat that animals now have in this world. You can write about-

- The clearing of forests
- The growth of cities
- Poaching by man
- The pollution of rivers
- The decreasing number of fellow tigers

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Q2. Take a coloured paper and write a letter to your friend about what you did during your Christmas vacation. Make an envelope with paper and decorate it. Put your letter in it. (Refer to your reader, page 79)