Date: 2nd September 2023

Teacher Incharge: Ms.Urvashi (9990905346)

“The recommendations of NEP 2020 on language learning were based on the latest research on language acquisition. Following NEP 2020, the overarching aim of the NCF’s Approach to Language Education is to ensure that children learn languages in such a way so as to optimize learning (across all domains and areas), communication skills (both oral and written), and socio-emotional skills, during their early years and throughout their lives.”

– NCF for Foundational Stage

Description- Join us at the Foundation Literacy and Numeracy (FLN) Mela, where language learning meets holistic growth, commemorating India's Presidency of G20. We invite your school to put up a stall under this vibrant banner.

Guidelines:

1. Uttam School for Girls will showcase creative stalls with a special focus on Literacy and Numeracy skills, carefully designed to incorporate FLN guidelines that say to amalgamate their outside school experiences in their classroom learning to attain foundational literacy and numeracy in a better way.
2. We extend an invitation to each school to bring a group of up to 6 students aged 3 to 8 years to attend the FLN Mela & enjoy the enriching activities.
3. We will create wonders of storytelling through enchanting puppets and create words with interactive flashcards.
4. The students can visit craft corners featuring language oriented games and other thoughtfully designed displays.

Criteria	Excellent(5marks)	Proficient(3marks)	Requisite(2Marks)
Relevance to the theme & Content	The newsletter demonstrates a comprehensive understanding of the event and effectively integrates the G20 concept into various campus events. It provides a clear and engaging message from the editorial team, showcasing creativity and originality in the content.	The newsletter adequately covers the event and shows a reasonable attempt to incorporate the G20 concept into campus events. The message from the editorial team is clear, but there is some need of creativity and uniqueness.	The newsletter covers the basic aspects of the event and briefly mentions the integration of the G20 concept. The message from the editorial team is present but lacks depth and creativity.
Design and Visual Appeal	The newsletter has an eye-catching and professional design, utilizing Canva tools creatively and skillfully to produce an aesthetically pleasing layout. The visual elements, colors, and typography are harmonious and enhance the overall look and feel of the newsletter.	The newsletter has a decent design with some creative elements, but improvements can be made to enhance visual appeal. The layout is reasonably structured and visually presentable.	The newsletter has a basic design with limited visual appeal. The layout may lack creativity and fail to create an engaging visual experience for readers.
Inclusion of Campus Events and Photography	The newsletter successfully captures and highlights various ongoing events on the campus, providing high-quality and relevant photographs that enhance the overall newsletter and the readers' experience.	The newsletter includes a reasonable number of campus events and provides adequate photographs that complement the content but might be lacking in some aspects.	The newsletter briefly mentions some campus events but may not effectively incorporate them into the content. The provided photographs might be of average quality and relevance.
Overall Presentation	The newsletter captivates with unique design, seamlessly integrating the G20 concept into various events, creating a cohesive narrative. Visually appealing layout, harmonizing colors, typography, and graphics. Well-crafted, engaging content provides a clear understanding of ongoing campus events.	The newsletter displays creativity, but it can be enhanced further for greater impact. G20 concept integration is mostly successful, though some connections feel forced. Pleasing and organized design, with room for visual improvements. Informative content serves its purpose, but lacks full engagement to captivate readers.	Conventional newsletter lacks creativity and originality. G20 concept mentioned, but explanations lack depth in demonstrating alignment. Functional design, but lacks flair and cohesion, appearing somewhat unpolished. Content conveys necessary information but lacks engagement to fully capture readers' interest.

Jonquil

-Celebrating Cy20 presidency 2023

The Fragrant Jonquil: A tribute to our esteemed Director

Although the years have passed on,
The memories still stay.
The vibrant smile of yours,
And the joy you always gave.

Your desk remains untouched wrapped in silence,
Missing the clicking of your pen.
The nurturing aura of yours and your guidance,
A part of you, which holds our hand again.

It feels as if you still shield us along,
Remembering you; the nostalgia gently sways.
Not a moment we feel, you were ever gone,
Alive are smallest of the moments, even today.

She guides us with wisdom and care, Through every trial, she's always there.
Her passion for education and love for all, Is something we treasure and never stall.

Been the visionary leader always,
"Don't waste paper" the dulcet voice used to say.
The valued teachings of yours never once faded,
We bow in honour to our ma'am Director, Ms. Bhusry.

With a heart as big as the world,
She brings us all together.
In the spirit of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam- Where all are one, united under the school's bright ether.

We celebrate her, through our literary fest, Where creativity and art are at their best.
Oh Jonquil! Symbol of rebirth,
Our director's spirit, her noble worth.
A shining light in our school's bright skies, Her legacy will forever rise.

Oh, Jonquil, sweet and bright,
Your petals sing with pure delight.
Her fervent love for literature we celebrate,
An ode to you, The Uttam Literary Fest- Jonquil, Ma'am Bhusry.
